A Member's Story:

Early on I was told that service keeps you sober. One time when I was newly sober again I was living in Louisiana and we were putting on a conference. They too told me service keeps you sober. I spent the whole weekend cooking for the whole conference. It was a great experience, and my love of service was growing. Unfortunately I was in and out a few more times. When I finally made it back for the last time, with a willingness I hadn't had before, I jumped right into service. I became the secretary for two groups. I made coffee, set up, and gave rides.

A couple years later I became our group's GSR. I loved it. This side of AA excited me. Shortly after that, our district treasurer was stepping down because of a move. They asked if anyone was interested and for some reason my hand went up. I was elected in and finished that term. I then stood and did it again for the next panel. After that I became our DCM. I learned even more, and became more excited about general service. After that panel was over I stood for positions on our current panel. I am currently the alternate chairperson of our area. It has definitely been a growing experience, and I can't wait to see where God puts me next.

Yours in service,
Pete W.
